About TANCAM

Tamil Nadu Centre of Excellence for Advanced Manufacturing (TANCAM) has been established by the Tamil Nadu Industrial Development Corporation (TIDCO) at TIDEL Park, Chennai. It is a first-of-its-kind Centre of Excellence (CoE) in India, created to strengthen the advanced manufacturing ecosystem in the state. TANCAM provides a dedicated IT and engineering innovation platform to support Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises (MSMEs), startups, and students across Tamil Nadu, enabling industry-ready skills, digital transformation, and technology adoption. The centre plays a pivotal role in accelerating growth in Aerospace, Defence, Automotive, Electric Vehicles (EVs), and allied advanced manufacturing sectors. To realize this vision, Dassault Systèmes has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with TIDCO, bringing global expertise, advanced design, simulation, digital manufacturing, and virtual twin technologies to Tamil Nadu's industrial and academic ecosystem.

About TNWise

TNWise is an annual collaborative hackathon that brings together aspiring women innovators, technologists, and student teams from engineering colleges, universities, and science institutions across Tamil Nadu. Building on the remarkable success of previous editions—where over 10,200+ women students from 450+ institutions participated and showcased more than 2,600 innovative projects—TNWise 2026 is poised to be even more expansive and impactful, with a prize pool of 19.2 Lakhs. The earlier editions demonstrated strong outcomes, including 12 Lakhs in prize money during TNWise 2024 and 19.2 Lakhs during TNWise 2025, alongside large-scale participation of 6,065 students and over 2,300 project submissions in 2025 alone. Beyond prizes, TNWise has delivered tangible career and entrepreneurship outcomes, empowering more than 40+ women entrepreneurs, supporting over 500+ researchers, and facilitating more than 200 internship opportunities, primarily benefiting participants from Tier 2 and Tier 3 cities, thereby creating meaningful visibility, industry access, and inclusive pathways for women and rural talent that have traditionally remained underrepresented.
